

POINT OF SALE SYSTEMS:

The point of sale system has been developed to help in the day to day business of supermarkets, shops, hardwares and hypermarkets it will be able to perform the following functions

1. have a database that stores all the goods in the premise
2. have all codes for all the goods that will allow them to be identified
3. print receipts for all sales of the business
4. produce financial statements for all transactions

This will help the business to grow and expand rapidly due to efficiency and speed.

INVENTORY

The Inventory system will allow the user or business to monitor the stock in that the movement of stock in and out of the store it will have the following features.

1. Monitor purchases of inventory
2. Monitor the inventory going out for processing
3. monitor the breakages and pilferages in inventory
4. monitor the movements of inventory
5. print out the documentation of all the above

ACCOUNTING SOFTWARE

This software is designed to help businesses prepare financial statements for the analysis of performance of the business it will perform the following functions

1. Petty cash recording and journal entry
2. cash book recording
3. bank reconciliation
4. balance sheet
5. trial balance
6. profit and loss statements
7. simple payroll system
8. print out the documentation the above
9. client support